

The members of the American Legion are about to be present.

The members of the American Legion are about to be present.

Mrs. Kayne and Mrs. Murray, from the previous and have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. Kimball.

On Thursday last Miss Rebecca Coffin of Honolulu entertained at a delightful dinner, Madame Copinger, Freyer, Van Bramer and Manhart of Honolulu and Mrs. Danse and Miss Leila Mae Farlow of Iola, each lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

SPECIAL UNTIL NEXT FRIDAY

"HUNNY"
10-pound Bucket $1.15
Regular $1.50

F. C. Parrish, Spot Cash Store

J. A. Mahoney, (Inc.)

Undertakers and Embalmers

EVERYTHING FIRST-CLASS

Day Phones	PROMPT	Night Phones
12		30
244	SERVICE	244

Another Cut In Price

The following list prices on Ford Cars and Chassis, F. O. B. Deming, will become effective August 1st, 1916:

Ford Chassis - -	$370.80
Ford Runabout - -	390.80
Ford Touring Car -	405.80
Ford Coupelet - -	555.00
Ford Town Car - -	645.00
Ford Sedan - -	695.00

We guarantee there will be no reduction in the above prices prior to August 1, 1917, but can give no assurance whatever against an advance in these prices at any time.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY

J. S. KERR, Agent, At Park Garage

Deming, New Mexico

Office 173 PHONES Residence 292

Watch the Fords go by is with his

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the Northeast Ark. Enterprise, and one of the many very pleasant officers of his regiment.

Newspaper Men in Co. E, 1st Ark.

With Co. E, First Regiment, of Little Rock, Deming is fortunate to welcome Mr. Basil Prince of the Gazette Publishing Co., Little Rock, and O. H. Smith of the Dallas News, a writer of considerable fame.

Deming is a great place to live in.

Another member of the club is back from the mountains. He has just returned from a week's vacation in the mountains. All the trees are fine and the grass is good.

The Ladies of the Borderland Club met with Mrs. Sharp Tuesday.

Mrs. Sharp furnished watermelon weighing forty-eight pounds, enough for all present. All members but two were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Spivane.

Call 185, and get our prices on that

next lot of statuary.—The Grouper.

Michigan Men Like Hunting

P. L. Montague of the Chalmers Motor Co., of Detroit, Mike and E. W. Bell of the Buick Co., What, arrived in the city this week and expect to make this their home permanently. Both men are experienced in the automobile business and will engage in this line of work or some other. They are especially men of ability and they do not know such a word as fail.

Welcome to our fair and gentle men.

State Senator With His Troops

Captain Horace E. Ruff, of the Medical Corps of the First Ark., is state senator from his district, and is so enamored of Deming that he would like to move his family out here for the winter, although he will have to do a few law-making stunts in January.

Capt. Ruff is editor of the